Sri Venkateswara Swamy, known as the Kaliyuga Pratyaksha Daivam, Jayanti is traditionally celebrated on the Shravana Nakshatra during Kanya Masa. In many years, this falls on Vijayadashami, so the two occasions are often associated with each other.

However, Sri Venkateswara Jayanti is observed based on the Shravana Nakshatra in Kanya Masa, not specifically on Vijayadashami. This year (2026), Shravana Nakshatra in Kanya Masa comes before Vijayadashami, so Sri Venkateswara Jayanti is being celebrated earlier according to tradition.

Shravana Nakshatra is considered especially dear to Lord Maha Vishnu. On this auspicious day, our temple performs a special Abhishekam with 108 Kalashas, along with special alankaram and Archana.

Worshipping Sri Venkateswara Swamy on this auspicious day brings His blessings, prosperity, and spiritual well-being. Let us celebrate this sacred Tirunakshatra by remembering His divine glory and praying for His grace and the well-being of all.

9:00 AM
