“Jyotishmateem Tvasadayami...” signifies the Vedic Samskruti (the spiritual way) to realize our Swamy as the Jyoti (light). Since the Vedic ages, our omniscient Swamy was worshiped as the one who removes darkness/ignorance and the one who guides us in the right direction.

Sahasra means one thousand and it refers to the infinite aspect of our Swamy. Sahasra Deepotsavam is the lighting of a thousand Deepas (lights) which represents how the Swamy illuminates the whole universe. We chant the Nakshatra Ishti mantras to remember and visualize our Swamy in the form of the universe filled with infinite shining stars. Hence, our Swamy's Vishwaroopam is witnessed during the Sahasra Deepotsavam festival.
