LOKA KALYANAM and HEALTH FOR ALL PEOPLE

In this current pandemic where there is only preventative/supportive measures and no approved treatment, it is highly recommended to practice Vedic, spiritual and historical methods to minimize the rapid spread and alleviate those who are affected.

In historical times when diseases were prevalent, there were practices followed by the kings to provide good health to people within their kingdom. Today, in the absence of kings this responsibility falls upon the spiritual institutions and people.

To protect people worldwide from epidemics, our temple is performing the following special poojas:
