Folk Art Styles of India: Warli Workshop

Explore the Minimalist Beauty of Warli Art

Warli, a traditional tribal art form from Maharashtra, uses simple geometric shapes to depict community life — dances, harvests, rituals, and celebrations. Its signature white ricepaste motifs on earthy backgrounds make it both accessible and deeply expressive.

You will need:

- Sizes 0, 1, and 25 mm flat brushes
- Terracotta or burnt sienna and white acrylic paints (other colors optional)
- White acrylic pen
- 4" x 4" canvas
- Rag cloth
- Jar/cannister with lid

We'll begin by practicing Warli strokes and motifs on a glass bottle, then transition to creating a final piece on canvas.
